Cirque de Soleil's famous contortionists

KURIOS: CABINET OF CURIOSITIES

Body contortionists, human pyramids, gravity-defying rola bola skills and awe-inspiring trampoline performances are just a few of the highlights at Cirque de Soleil's newest show. Set in the late 19th century and performed under its iconic blue and yellow big top, it relates the tale of fantasy worlds come to life. Tickets from $35, Lone Star Park at Grand Prairie, 877.924.7783, cirquedesoleil.com/kurios multiplatinum and Grammy-nominated hip-hop artist Big Sean—he's collabed with Kanye West, Jay Z, Lil Wayne and more—as he launches his I DECIDED tour, marking his newest album. 8PM, tickets from $50, South Side Ballroom, livenationentertainment.com

3/20

Room Full of Teeth

Founded in 2009, the talented vocal group Room Full of Teeth—which earned a Grammy in 2014 for their unique style and talent—is comprised of nine classically trained singers with a singular goal to “mine the expressive potential of the human voice.” 7:30-9:30PM, tickets $45, Caruth Auditorium, Owens Art Center, Southern Methodist University, dallaschambermusic.org

3/22-25

Dallas Market

Center Apparel & Accessories Market

Discover all the latest apparel and accessories, styles and trends in a Texas-size event with Big D flair. Bonus: This year's dual market also features top gift and home finds. Dallas Market Center, 214.655.6100, dallasmarketcenter.com

3/24

Recess!

From a life-size Connect Four game and interactive photo booths to a giant sandbox, dinner and live music—it's everything adults need to have fun! The theme, after all, is Recess! at the Dallas Afterschool's 10th anniversary event, which will help raise both funds and awareness about filling the after-school hours with quality programming for underprivileged children and closing the opportunity and achievement gaps. Tickets $175, Dallas Arboretum and Botanical Gardens, 214.306.8400, dallasarboretum.org

THROUGH 4/1

Flight 1549

The celebrated heroism of Captain Chesley Sullenberger and all the first responders who rescued US Airways Flight 1549 from the Hudson River is on full display at the CR Smith Museum. The Flight 1549: Miracle on the Hudson exhibition is an abridged version of the same-named exhibit at North Carolina's aviation museum and engages visitors with a 50-foot panel that details the day's incredible events. Tickets $7, C.R. Smith Museum, Fort Worth, 817.967.1560, crsmithmuseum.org

THROUGH 4/2

Carey Young: The New Architecture

In a bold exhibition marking her first solo show in the United States, London-based artist Carey Young displays a new video work as well as photographic and text-based works. The exhibit is based on a meditation of power—both judicial and corporate, including impressive photographs of lawyers or judges at trial—as well as artistic interpretations of performance, space and the sublime. Dallas Museum of Art, 214.922.1200, dma.org

THROUGH 4/9

Dallas Blooms: Flower Power

Petal pushers, unite! It's the Southwest's biggest and best spring floral festival. Dallas Arboretum and Botanical Garden are hosting the Peace, Love and Blooms exhibition that touts more than 500,000 flourishing flowers, petal-bedecked VW bugs and more. Presented by IBERIABANK. Tickets $10-$15, 214.515.6615, dallasarboretum.org

THE OTHER MOZART

A dynamic, true yet untold story about Nannerl Mozart, the sister of Amadeus and a keyboard virtuoso, composer and prodigy. The monodrama, created by Sylvia Milo, is centered on the Mozart family's personal letters and on both facts and stories of their lives. Emotional yet plucked with humor, it establishes Nannerl's own place in history, performing all over Europe with her brother. Tickets from $38, Eisemann Center for Performing Arts, Richardson, 972.744.4650, eisemanncenter.com
