

DALLAS NEWS

Powered by The Dallas Morning News

PHILANTHROPY 1 HR AGO

Harwood International's Hope Fest raises money for special needs agencies, anti-sex-trafficking organization

Harwood International presents an afternoon and evening of live music and playtime Saturday at the inaugural Hope Fest: Live From Harwood.

Situated at Happiest Hour, the fundraiser is the brainchild of Harwood executive vice president Oliver Barbier-Mueller and his wife, Katelyn. It will feature music by Dallas-Fort Worth artists Josh Weathers, Cas Haley and Michael Lee.

The festival benefits Connecting Point, which serves adults with special needs, Cornerstone Achievement Center for youths with disabilities and Love Like You Mean It, which Weathers co-founded to redress sex trafficking in India.

Visit hopefestlive.com for $60 general admission or $150 tickets that include beer, wine, snacks and patio access.